No matters arising.

LR022/20 Installation of Anti-Litter Signage

Chairman spoke about the response from TRDC that had been circulated to all members of the sub-committee. Chairman advised that TRDC did not give permission for the signs the Litter Reduction sub-committee approved on 1st September (LR014/20), being installed on TRDC land. The campaign to install anti-litter signs in Croxley Green will be paused until Spring 2021. Chairman commented that he will write to Croxley Green's TRDC Councillors to share the anti-litter campaign aims.

LR023/20 Campaign Messaging with Local Businesses

Chairman spoke about campaign messaging which is to be sent out to Local Businesses and specifically the letter that was approved on 1st September

(LR015/20). The Administrative Officer will print the letter and work with Members to identify local businesses to distribute it to.

LR024/20      Creating Volunteer Litter Groups

Committee noted the current litter picking activities being carried out around Croxley Green and discussed the possibility of holding a village wide litter picking event in November.

Committee noted the use of plastic rubbish bags to collect litter and discussed the possibility of using biodegradable or compostable bags.

Committee noted that current litter picking activities are done in conjunction with TRDC who organise a central point for the volunteers to drop the collected litter.

LR025/20      Closure

There being no further business the Chairman closed the meeting at 7:55pm
